Our Contract with You

Where We agree to enter into a Policy with You, following payment or Your agreement to pay the Premium, it is a contract of insurance between Us and You (see definition of "You" for details of who is covered by this term).

The Policy sets out the Cover which We are able to provide You. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of Cover are appropriate for You and will Cover Your potential loss. If they are not, You may be underinsured and You may have to bear that part of any loss for which You are not covered.

The Policy consists of:

- This document which sets out the standard terms and conditions of Your relevant Cover, including its limitations and exclusions;
- The Policy Schedule issued by NWC. The Policy Schedule is a separate document, which shows certain insurance details relevant to You. It may include additional terms, conditions and exclusions relevant to You that amend the standard terms of this document. If the Policy is varied during the Period of Insurance We will send You an updated Policy Schedule taking into account the variations; and
- Any other change to the terms of the Policy otherwise advised by Us in writing (such as an Endorsement or Supplementary PDS) which may vary or modify the above documents.

These are all important documents and should be carefully read together as if they were one document to ensure that You are satisfied with the Cover. All Policy documentation should be kept in a safe place for future reference.

We reserve the right to change the terms of the Policy where permitted to do so by law.

Your Duty of Disclosure

What You Must Tell Us:

Before You enter into the Policy with Us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (the Act) requires You to provide Us with the information We need to enable Us to decide whether and on what terms Your application for insurance is acceptable and to calculate what is the Premium required for Your insurance.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time You enter into the Policy with Us to that which applies when You vary, extend, reinstate or replace the Policy. We set these two duties out below.

You will be asked various questions when You first apply for the Policy and when You answer You need to:

- Give Us honest and complete answers;
- Tell Us everything that You know; and
- Tell Us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell Us.

When You vary, extend, reinstate or replace the Policy,

Your duty is to tell Us before doing so, every matter known to You which You know, or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to insure You and whether any special conditions need to apply to Your Policy.

You are not required to disclose anything that:

- Diminishes the risk to Us as the insurer;
- We know or should know based on Our business;
- Is common knowledge;
- We tell You We do not need to know.

The duty of disclosure applies until the Policy is entered into, or where relevant, extended, varied, reinstated or replaced (Relevant Time). If anything changes between the time You provide answers or make disclosure and the Relevant Time, You need to tell Us.

The duty of disclosure applies to You and everyone that is an insured under the Policy. If You provide information for another insured, it is as if they provided it to Us.

If You do not notify Us of all relevant information that You are aware of We may:

- Refuse to pay a claim, or
- Reduce the amount of Your claim, and/or
- Avoid the Policy.

If fraud is involved, We may treat the Policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

15 Compensation Arrangements and Financial Claims Scheme

We are an insurance company authorised under the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth) (Insurance Act) to carry on general insurance business in Australia by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and are subject to the prudential requirements of the Insurance Act. The Insurance Act is designed to ensure that, under all reasonable circumstances, financial promises made by Us are met within a stable, efficient and competitive financial system.

We have compensation arrangements in place that are in accordance with the Insurance Act.

In the unlikely event that We were to become insolvent and could not meet Our obligations under the Policy, a person entitled to claim under the Policy may be entitled to payment under the Financial Claims Scheme. Access to the scheme is subject to eligibility criteria. Please refer to www.apra.gov.au or call the APRA Hotline on 1300 558 849 for more information.

Combined Product Disclosure Statement and Financial Services Guide

Part B: Financial Services Guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) describes the financial services that are provided when you purchase this warranty insurance underwritten by the insurer Avea Insurance Limited (AFSL 129 793) ("Avea") through the persons specified below. It is designed to assist you in deciding whether to use these services. It also contains general information about the relevant persons, how they and other persons or organisations are paid in relation to the services and how to make a complaint.

The Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) (Part A of this document) contains information on the benefits and significant characteristics of this insurance and of the rights, terms and conditions attaching to it. It is aimed at assisting you to compare insurance products so that you can make an informed choice about whether to acquire the product.

The services

Your finance broker assisting you in applying for this insurance and the Dealer listed below act as Authorised Representatives of and are authorised to arrange the warranty insurance and assist with applications as agent for Avea. They can answer questions about the warranty, assist with your application and accept payment. They can give you general advice, but not advice about whether the warranty is suitable for your personal needs or situation.

Avea has also appointed Davantage Group Pty Ltd (AR No. 471812) trading as National Warranty Company ("NWC") under binder as its Authorised Representative to issue the insurance offered to you by your finance broker and to handle claims and policy administration including cancellations, variations, claim settlements and policy transfers on Avea's behalf.

The Fees

When your finance broker arranges the insurance, the Dealer will include a fee for their and your finance broker's services in handling your application. NWC also charge a fee for issuing the insurance. These fees are in addition to the premium charged by Avea as insurer. If you cancel the insurance and you are entitled to a refund in accordance with clause 10.1 of the PDS, NWC will also refund a proportionate amount that is pro-rated for the remaining period of cover of the Dealer's fee and NWC's fee (see Cancellation Section in Part A for details).

Your finance broker may receive a bonus from the Dealer for arranging the insurance if certain criteria is met. NWC may also provide your finance broker and the Dealer with non- monetary benefits from time to time, including tickets to sporting events and other gifts.

Complaints and Disputes

If you wish to make a complaint regarding any aspect of your relationship with your finance broker, the Dealer, NWC or Avea, your warranty or the services provided by your finance broker in relation to the warranty, contact NWC's Complaints Officer on 1800 888 760. Your complaint will be acknowledged immediately and NWC and Avea will try to resolve it within ten (10) business days. Once your complaint is reviewed, if you are dissatisfied with the resolution you may contact Avea and request that your dispute be heard by Avea's Internal Dispute Resolution Committee.

Avea is a member of Financial Ombudsman Service Ltd (FOS), an external dispute resolution scheme. If you are not satisfied with how your complaint has been handled, you can contact FOS on 1300 780 808 and they will consider your complaint. This is a free service.

Professional indemnity insurance is in place and it covers your finance broker, Dealer and NWC for any errors or mistakes relating to the financial services described in this FSG. This insurance meets the requirements of the Corporations Act.
